(2) TYPES OF BENEFITS.—Section 8904(a) of such title is amended by inserting after paragraph (4) the following new paragraph:

"(5) CATASTROPHIC PLANS.—Benefits of the types named under paragraph (1) or (2) of this subsection or both, to the extent expenses covered by the plan exceed $500."

(3) DETERMINING LEVEL OF GOVERNMENT CONTRIBUTIONS.—Section 8906(b) of such title is amended by adding at the end the following: "Subscription charges for medical savings accounts shall be deemed to be the amount of Government contributions made under subsection (j)(2)."

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to contract terms beginning on or after January 1, 2000.

BURNS AMENDMENT NO. 704

(Ordered to lie on the table.)

Mr. BURNS submitted an amendment intended to be proposed by him to the bill, S. 1233, supra; as follows:

On page 76, between lines 6 and 7, insert the following:

SEC. 7 ____ SENSE OF SENATE ON LAMB MEAT IMPORTS.—It is the sense of the Senate that—

(1) there is an overabundance of foreign lamb meat being imported into the United States;

(2) the glut of imported lamb meat is severely harming domestic producers and the domestic agricultural industry;

(3) the sheep industry filed a petition to take action under section 201 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2251) to prevent further loss of market share due to the enormous quantities of lamb being imported into the United States from New Zealand and Australia;

(4) on February 9, 1999, the International Trade Commission voted unanimously that lamb imports are a threat to the sheep industry in the United States;

(5) on March 26, 1999, the International Trade Commission voted to support 4 years of market stability in the marketing of lamb meat;

(6) several remedies have been offered to achieve this market stability, including tariff rate quotas and ad-valorem tariffs;

(7) the efforts of the sheep industry in the United States should be supported;

(8) although international military issues have recently consumed much time and consideration, with the Kosovo agreement now in place, Congress should turn its attention to domestic matters;

(9) the problem of the overabundance of foreign lamb meat in the United States has important consequences for imports and international trade; and

(10) the remedy that will provide the greatest practicable assistance to the domestic lamb industry should be implemented as soon as practicable.

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

TRIBUTE TO BOBBIE FOUST

• Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, I rise today to pay tribute to Roberta Foust, or "Bobbie" as she is known to her many friends and readers. With her recent retirement from The Paducah Sun, Bobbie completes a distinguished career as a journalist.

Her byline has long been a familiar one to news readers in the western part of Kentucky. She worked for The Calvert News in Calvert City in the 1960's. In 1972, she began working as a reporter and photographer for The Tribune Courier in Marshall County, in the heart of Kentucky's Western Lakes region. After 5 years, she moved to the rival Marshall County Messenger, where she was responsible for all news content, layout, and design. She returned to The Tribune Courier in a similar capacity in 1979. In 1988, she became the editor of the weekly Herald Ledger in Eddyville, a position she held until the local ownership sold the paper in 1991.

Bobbie then joined the largest newspaper in far Western Kentucky, The Paducah Sun, a daily with a circulation of 31,000. With the Sun, Bobbie served as a general assignment reporter. In this position, she worked in Marshall, Lyon, and other lakes-area counties. Besides the usual broad assortment of news she covered in her day-to-day duties, Bobbie covered certain continuing stories, and developed an in-depth knowledge in these areas that was widely recognized. Among these were the Land Between the Lakes and the role of the Tennessee Valley Authority in LBL and Western Kentucky. During this time, Bobbie earned broad respect in the region she covered, as well as at TVA headquarters in Knoxville and Washington.

I have not only been a regular reader of Bobbie's, but have often been covered in her stories. Over the years, I have had the opportunity to get to know her first-hand, and feel that I am in a uniquely qualified position to comment upon her journalistic legacy. Bobbie has earned a reputation of persistence, thoroughness, and objectivity—the three lodestars of her profession. Always firm in getting the story for her readers, she was unflappably cordial in personal demeanor in the performance of her duties.

Bobbie's retirement plans include the possibility of taking some college course work, and hopefully, the role of occasional contributor to The Paducah Sun. Along with Bobbie's husband, Ray, and children, Donna, Terrie, Jackie, and Dennis, I wish Bobbie an enjoyable and productive retirement. I ask that my colleagues join me in recognizing the career of this outstanding Kentuckian.●

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF BREAD FOR THE WORLD

• Mr. HARKIN. Mr. President, for 25 years, Bread for the World has been putting principles of faith to work in pursuit of justice for the world's hungry people. Bread for the World members are now in Washington for their National Gathering, Silver Anniversary Celebration, and Annual Lobby Day. I want to take this opportunity to welcome them and to congratulate Bread for the World and its tens of thousands of members for 25 years of accomplishment in the service of humankind. It is a great honor for me to be a member of Bread for the World's board.

Bread for the World remains true to its origins as a grassroots organization working from local churches on through to the national and international levels to address the fundamental causes of hunger and poverty. The organization was founded in 1974 by a small group of Catholics and Protestants who sought to mobilize persons of faith to influence United States policies relating to hunger and
